DATROSE RANKED EIGHTH OF TOP TEN REVENUE GROWTH LEADERS, 82ND OF B.E. 100s BY BLACK ENTERPRISE

ROCHESTER, N.Y., June 12, 2008 – Datrose, Inc., a talent acquisition solutions and finance/administrative outsourcing business headquartered in Webster, N.Y., has been ranked eighth of the Top Ten Revenue Growth Leaders by Black Enterprise magazine in its June 2008 issue. Black Enterprise also has ranked Datrose 82nd of the B.E. 100s, an annual ranking of the 100 largest black-owned businesses in the nation. In order for an industrial/service business to be eligible for this ranking, it must be at least 51 percent black-owned and it must have been fully operational for the previous calendar year, according to the article in Black Enterprise.

Black Enterprise also publishes an annual ranking of the top 100 black-owned businesses. The B.E. 100s, where Datrose is ranked 82nd, represents businesses in the nation that have achieved the highest levels of excellence and success. Those on this list are recognized for increasing revenue and market shares innovatively.

Bill Rose, chairman of the board and CEO of Datrose, is proud to add this honor to the long list of awards and recognition Datrose has earned over the years. “We have succeeded in business as a result of our flawless delivery of service. Yet, we are also proud to be a minority owned business that has done well for our customers, our employees and our community,” Rose said.

“The heart and soul of our organization is our people. Despite our advances in technology, superior business processes, and world-class quality, people are still the prime factor in our success and our clients’ high level of satisfaction. DATROSE has highly diverse, talented people who are passionate about serving our clients and building relationships,” said Cheryl Keck, President and COO.
