"Veterans in the U.S. are often underemployed, and face barriers to securing meaningful, full-time roles in the private sector," said Sara Enright, Project Director of the Global Impact Sourcing Coalition. "GISC is excited to include Datrose in its membership, and to raise awareness about how companies can source from suppliers that offer career advancing opportunities to Veterans and other vulnerable populations."

"We're very proud to be a member of the Global Impact Sourcing Coalition," said Cheryl Leader, Datrose President and COO. "As a Veteran-owned company, it's very important for us to be able to give back and bridge the employment gap between Veterans and employers. With a team of Certified Veteran Recruiters and U.S. Military Veterans, our unique blend of recruiting expertise and military experience allows us to really have a positive and meaningful impact on the Veteran community and the employers they are placed with."
